

Free Video Training Series

Exploring Race and Culture from a Trauma-Informed Lens Segment 1: White Privilege

2 Videos:

Part 1: Exploring Racism and Whiteness/Embracing Truth

Part 2: Growing into Authentic Allyship and Racial Justice

Access the training:

<https://children.wi.gov/Pages/CollectiveImpactTeams/TICWorkshops.aspx>

Video Segments Include:

- Expert panel discussion.
- Each segment is approximately 30 minutes in length.
- Accompanied by a Training Toolkit with discussion questions and resources.
- Ideal for staff training in one hour. View the video as a team and then discuss the questions in the Training Toolkit.

Panel participants:

- Linda Hall (panel facilitator) – Director, Wisconsin Office of Children's Mental Health
- Armando Hernandez – Chief Diversity Officer, Journey Mental Health Center
- William Parke Sutherland – Health Policy Analyst, Kids Forward
- Pat Parker – Curriculum and Instruction Manager, the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare at UW – Milwaukee

Learn from the panel as they have a direct discussion on the topic of white privilege – exploring oppression, dehumanization, and deconstructing whiteness in Part 1 and authentic allyship and what that looks like in Part 2.

Exploring Race and Culture from a Trauma-Informed Lens is a 3-segment video series:

- Segment 1 – White Privilege (available now)
- Segment 2 – Implicit Bias (scheduled for release March 22, 2022)
- Segment 3 – Working with People with Different Racial and Cultural Backgrounds (scheduled for release April 26, 2022)

The videos are produced by the Office of Children's Mental Health Trauma-Informed Care Collective Impact Team. The Team has held many successful trauma-informed care workshops in the past and provides on-demand video trainings on relevant trauma-informed care topics to further the workforce's learning in trauma-informed care.